OUR PARTNERS

WANT YOU TO BE GREAT

ZABEL THUR DE KOOS

Zabel is a lifelong resident of Gainesville. She was born in 1977 and graduated from the University of Florida in 2000 with a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration. She grew up helping her parents manage a small apartment complex performing various tasks from paperwork to yardwork and cleaning apartments. While in college she was the resident manager of the complex and in 2000 she and her father, Ropen Nalbandian, purchased another, larger complex next door. Since 2000 her companies have grown, acquiring more rental assets both commercial, residential, and vacant lands for future development. She owns and manages over 300,000 square feet of commercial office and warehouse spaces and 3 apartment complexes totaling 330 units.

PAUL THUR DE KOOS

Paul Thur de Koos, originally from Johnson City, TN is the Managing Director of Operations and Licensed Real Estate Salesperson for Lexis Real Estate. He specializes in the management of multi-tenant office buildings and warehouses negotiating leases, coordinating maintenance, and oversees special projects. Paul graduated from Centre College in Danville, Kentucky and soon thereafter earned a Master of Environmental Engineering from the University of Florida specializing in solid and hazardous waste. Paul joined forces with his wife, Zabel, and father-in-law (Ropen) in 2009 after working for several years as an engineer. Paul is currently a board member of Gainesville's Chamber of Commerce actively engaged in bringing new businesses to Gainesville. Paul enjoys coaching sports teams and attending Gator sporting events with family.

TODD CHASE

Todd has lived in Gainesville for nearly twenty years where he and his wife, Mary, raised their three children. He has thirty years of leadership experience in business, government, and military organizations. A retired Navy pilot with 28 years of active duty and reserve service, he holds a BS Degree in Mathematics from Jacksonville University and an MBA from Harvard Business School. Todd was elected twice to the Gainesville City Commission serving from 2011-2017, where he was known for his blunt common sense and responsible fiscal oversight. He moved here originally as an early stage venture capitalist investing in technology and the entrepreneurs at the University of Florida, and has played an important role in the growth of our local innovation economy as an investor, founder, and executive. Todd coached and mentored countless young men at the Boys Club and YMCA over the years and has served on numerous boards throughout our community.

OUR VISION

Lexis takes pride in delivering exceptional customer service. We have been serving the realty needs of this market for over 30 years. During this time we came to realize that the best service comes from a smaller boutique agency where individual agents bring their unique talents together for the best interest of our clients. We are focused on building lasting relationships with both customers and team members. We are committed to the pursuit of excellence in real estate through education and collaboration in an ever changing market. Lexis wants to be a partner in your story.
